

MOHAMMAD A. SAFADI
Member of Parliament
Republic of Lebanon

Mohammad Safadi is a successful businessman, philanthropist, and public servant. He began his career in the private sector and is currently Chairman of the Board of Safadi Group Holding SAL that concentrates investments in the fields of property development and business aviation.

Safadi was elected to Parliament in 2000. Since that time Safadi has served his country in various ministerial capacities. Between 2005-2008, he served as Minister of Public Works and Transport, while simultaneously serving as Acting Minister of Water and Energy between 2007-2008. He then served as Minister of Economy and Trade between 2008-2011 until he was appointed Minister of Finance where he served between 2011-2014.

Safadi supports the development of Lebanese civil society and the reform of state institutions through his title as President of Safadi Foundation Tripoli.

Safadi is a member of many Commissions, Committees and Boards. In particular, he is a member of the John F. Kennedy School of Government Dean's Council at Harvard University and serves on the Board of several American educational institutions in Lebanon. He is also a member of the Middle East Advisory Board at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars.

Safadi was granted "Order of the Knight" from the French Government, Award of the Cross of the Order of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany, and "Order of Civil Merit" from the Kingdom of Spain.

Mohammad A. Safadi was born in Tripoli, Lebanon on March 28, 1944. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from the American University of Beirut.